REPORT OF CITY OFFICIALS Report of the Clerk of the Board of Aldermen

I wish to report that on the 17th day of June, 2011, I delivered to the Office of the Mayor of the City of St. Louis the following board bills that were truly agreed to and finally adopted.

Board Bill No. 20

An ordinance approving a blighting study and redevelopment plan dated January 25, 2011 for the N. Grand/W. Florissant/Grove/Carter Redevelopment Area (as further defined herein, the "Plan") after finding that said Redevelopment Area ("Area") is blighted as defined in Section 99.320 of the Revised Statutes of Missouri, as amended (the "Statute" being Sections 99.300 to 99.715 RSMo inclusive, as amended); containing a description of the boundaries of the Area in the City of St. Louis ("City"), attached hereto and incorporated herein as Attachment "A", finding that redevelopment and rehabilitation of the Area is in the interest of the public health, safety, morals and general welfare of the people of the City; approving the Plan attached hereto and incorporated herein as Attachment "B", pursuant to Section 99.430 RSMo, as amended; finding that there is a feasible financial plan for the redevelopment of the Area which affords maximum opportunity for redevelopment of the Area by private enterprise; finding that no property in the Area may be acquired by the Land Clearance for Redevelopment Authority of the City of St. Louis ("LCRA"), a public body corporate and politic created under Missouri law, through the exercise of eminent domain; finding that some of the property within the Area is occupied, and the Redeveloper(s) (as defined herein) shall be responsible for providing relocation assistance pursuant to the Plan to any eligible occupants displaced as a result of implementation of the Plan; finding that financial aid may be necessary to enable the Area to be redeveloped in accordance with the Plan; finding that there shall be available up to a ten (10) year real estate tax abatement; and pledging cooperation of this St. Louis Board of Aldermen ("Board") and requesting various officials, departments, boards and agencies of the City to cooperate and to exercise their respective powers in a manner consistent with the Plan; and containing a severability clause.

Board Bill No. 65

An ordinance approving a blighting study and redevelopment plan dated April 26, 2011 for the 1100 Farrar St. Redevelopment Area (as further defined herein, the "Plan") after finding that said Redevelopment Area ("Area") is blighted as defined in Section 99.320 of the Revised Statutes of Missouri, as amended (the "Statute" being Sections 99.300 to 99.715 RSMo inclusive, as amended); containing a description of the boundaries of the Area in the City of St. Louis ("City"), attached hereto and incorporated herein as Attachment "A", finding that redevelopment and rehabilitation of the Area is in the interest of the public health, safety, morals and general welfare of the people of the City; approving the Plan attached hereto and incorporated herein as Attachment "B", pursuant to Section 99.430 RSMo, as amended; finding that there is a feasible financial plan for the redevelopment of the Area which affords maximum opportunity for redevelopment of the Area by private enterprise; finding that no property in the Area may be acquired by the Land Clearance for Redevelopment Authority of the City of St. Louis ("LCRA"), a public body corporate and politic created under Missouri law, through the exercise of eminent domain; finding that the property within the Area is partially occupied, and the Redeveloper(s) (as defined herein) shall be responsible for providing relocation assistance pursuant to the Plan to any eligible occupants displaced as a result of implementation of the Plan; finding that financial aid may be necessary to enable the Area to be redeveloped in accordance with the Plan; finding that there shall be available up to a ten (10) year real estate tax abatement; and pledging cooperation of this St. Louis Board of Aldermen ("Board") and requesting various officials, departments, boards and agencies of the City to cooperate and to exercise their respective powers in a manner consistent with the Plan; and containing a severability clause.

Board Bill No. 67

An ordinance amending Ordinance No. 68098; authorizing the execution of an amendment to Redevelopment Agreement by and between the City of St. Louis and City Hospital Powerhouse TIF, Inc.; prescribing the form and details of said amendment; making certain findings with respect thereto; authorizing other related actions; and containing a severability clause, an appropriation clause, and an emergency clause.

Missouri State University graduate with a degree in Industrial technology, now gainfully employed as a St. Louis Firefighter; and

WHEREAS, after graduating from L'Ouverture Elementary School and Vashon High School, Mr. Green enrolled in an electronics correspondence course with DeVry Technical Institute in Chicago, Illinois, while working as a Page at Washington University Clinic. He completed his studies in July 1956 and was awarded a competency certificate in radio and television repair. He was also awarded a four year Danforth Fellowship in September 1970 and attended St. Louis University. After completion of his undergraduate studies, he received a Bachelor of Arts in Urban Affairs, with a minor in Political Science, in May 1974. The following September, He enrolled in St. Louis University's Graduate School of Social Work for one semester. In January 1975 he transferred to the George Warren Brown

School of Social Work at Washington University and received my Master of Social Work in May 1976; and

Resolution No. 123

James Claybourn Bush

WHEREAS, James Claybourn Bush was born on February 27, 1913 in Covington, Virginia Charles Claybourn and Bertha Harris Bush; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Bush graduated from West Virginia State College in 1933. He left an enviable academic record there that carved a path to his next major step. Upon completion of his work at West Virginia, he entered the College of Law at Howard University and graduated magna cum laude in June 1937. He passed the legal bar the same year; and

WHEREAS, he went from Washington, DC to Cleveland, Ohio, where he opened law office with Attorney Charles Quick. From Cleveland, where he was enjoying a splendid practice, he moved to Jefferson City, Missouri to accept the appointment as assistant to the Professor of Law at Lincoln University. In 1942, he was appointed as assistant to the Secretary of the Interior, Mr. Harold Ickes. He held this position for two years until he returned to Missouri; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Bush opened his private law practice in St. Louis in 1944. From 1947-1948 he served as a State Representative. When he assumed his private law practice, he formed a law partnership with W.S. Diuguid, Attorney-at-Law; and

WHEREAS, he spent many years working tirelessly to improve the plight of African Americans and African American youth. In 1944, through the South Side Civic Improvement Association, organized by him and Attorney Diuguid, he accompanied the first group of African American youth to Buder Playground. Two years later, after a continued struggle, he led them back where this time they entered the bath house for the first time; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Bush was a member of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, the Mound City Bar Association, and the South Side Civic Improvement Association.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize and honor James Claybourn Bush and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Carried unanimously by voice vote.

FIRST READING OF RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Kennedy introduced Resolution No. 121 and the Clerk was instructed to read same.

Resolution No. 121

WHEREAS, in 2007 the American Civil Liberties Union of Eastern Missouri (ACLU-EM) began a preliminary investigation into the two St. Louis City jails, the City Justice Center and the Medium Security Institute (CJC/MSI) and later issued a report on their findings in 2009; and

WHEREAS, the investigation was initiated after numerous citizens brought allegations of abuse to the attention of the ACLU-EM; and

WHEREAS, six Corrections Officers (COs) were interviewed for the preliminary investigation. Nine inmates provided the ACLU-EM with information about abuse and conditions in the CJC/MSI through correspondence and direct interviews; and

WHEREAS, according to those interviewed, human dignity is contemptuously disregarded, and civil liberties violations and physical abuse of residents are covered up regularly by officials at both facilities. The accounts of both the COs and inmates are consistent; and

WHEREAS, the findings alleged in this preliminary investigation include: Inmate Assaults by COs, Inmate Assaults on Other Inmates Directed by COs, Systemic Cover Up of Incidents, False Reporting, Failure to Make Reports, Superficial Accountability Process and Interference with Reporting of Incidents, Subjective Discipline and Rewards, Sexual Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, Medical Neglect, Squalor, Overcrowding, Extended Incarceration, Inmates Stripped Naked and Subjected to Temperature Extremes, Negligence Resulting in Death, Intimidation, Failure to Log and Report Medical Matters, Questionable Hiring and Training, Policy Violations and Failed Oversight; and

WHEREAS, since this report has been issued there have been continued problems at the City jails indicating that it is imperative that the St. Louis Board of Aldermen have a full understanding and comprehension of the issues alleged in this report; and

WHEREAS, shortly after the issuance of the ACLU report in 2009 the Public Safety Committee of the Board of Aldermen held hearings to discuss the ACLU findings with the city Public Safety Director, Commissioner of Corrections, union representatives and representatives of the ACLU; and

WHEREAS, after listening to all the testimony the Public Safety Committee determined by vote to convene a work group composed of the City Public Safety Director, Commissioner of City Corrections, representatives from the ACLU, union representatives and the Vice Chair of the Public Safety Committee of the Board of Aldermen to discuss ways the issues can be addressed; and

WHEREAS, after many discussions and review of data this work group determined that a civilian review process for the City jails would be the best recommendation for improvement but was unable to complete the design of it recommendation due to the ending of the Board of Aldermen's legislative session.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen for the City of St. Louis that we direct the Public Safety Committee to convene hearings, under its authority, for the purpose of examining and reviewing the present conditions of the City jails in relation to the report of the ACLU and develop and design recommendations for improvements that it may deem necessary and we further direct the committee to include in such discussions the Director of the Department of Public Safety for the City of St. Louis and all other parties deemed appropriate by the Public Safety Committee and we further direct the committee to report its findings and recommendations to the full Board of Aldermen by Friday, October 28, 2011.

Introduced on the 17th day of June, 2011 by:

ST. LOUIS LIVING WAGE ORDINANCE LIVING WAGE ADJUSTMENT BULLETIN

NOTICE OF ST. LOUIS LIVING WAGE RATES

EFFECTIVE APRIL 1, 2011

In accordance with Ordinance No. 65597, the St. Louis Living Wage Ordinance ("Ordinance") and the Regulations associated therewith, the City Compliance Official for the City of St. Louis has determined that the following living wage rates are now in effect for employees of covered contracts:

- 1) Where health benefits as defined in the Ordinance are provided to the employee, the living wage rate is $11.58 per hour (130% of the federal poverty level income guideline for a family of three); and
- 2) Where health benefits as defined in the Ordinance are not provided to the employee, the living wage rate is $15.08 per hour (130% of the federal poverty level income guideline for a family of three, plus fringe benefit rates as defined in the Ordinance).
- 3) Wages required under Chapter 6.20 of the Revised Code of the City of St. Louis: $3.50 per hour.

These rates are based upon federal poverty level income guidelines as defined in the Ordinance and these rates are effective as of April 1, 2011. These rates will be further adjusted periodically when the federal poverty level income guideline is adjusted by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services or pursuant to Chapter 6.20 of the Revised Code of the City of St. Louis.

The Ordinance applies to employers who are covered by the Ordinance as defined in the Ordinance, where the contract or grant is entered into or renewed after the effective date of the Ordinance, which is November 3, 2002. A copy of the Ordinance may be viewed online at <http://www.mwdbe.org/livingwage> or obtained from:
