REPORT OF CITY OFFICIALS Report of the Clerk of the Board of Aldermen

To the President of the Board of Aldermen:

I wish to report that on the 9th day of November, 2012, I delivered to the Office of the Mayor of the City of St. Louis the following board bills that were truly agreed to and finally adopted.

Board Bill No. 132 (Committee Substitute)

An ordinance approving a blighting study and redevelopment plan dated June 26, 2012 for the 6901 McKissock Avenue Redevelopment Area (as further defined herein, the "Plan") after finding that said Redevelopment Area ("Area") is blighted as defined in Section 99.320 of the Revised Statutes of Missouri, as amended (the "Statute" being Sections 99.300 to 99.715 RSMo inclusive, as amended); containing a description of the boundaries of the Area in the City of St. Louis ("City"), attached hereto and incorporated herein as Attachment "A", finding that redevelopment and rehabilitation of the Area is in the interest of the public health, safety, morals and general welfare of the people of the City; approving the Plan attached hereto and incorporated herein as Attachment "B", pursuant to Section 99.430 RSMo, as amended; finding that there is a feasible financial plan for the redevelopment of the Area which affords maximum opportunity for redevelopment of the Area by private enterprise; finding that no property in the Area may be acquired by the Land Clearance for Redevelopment Authority of the City of St. Louis ("LCRA"), a public body corporate and politic created under Missouri law, through the exercise of eminent domain; finding that the property within the Area is occupied, the Redeveloper(s) (as defined herein) shall be responsible for providing relocation assistance pursuant to the Plan to any eligible occupants displaced as a result of implementation of the Plan; finding that financial aid may be necessary to enable the Area to be redeveloped in accordance with the Plan; finding that there shall be available up to a ten (10) year real estate tax abatement; and pledging cooperation of this St. Louis Board of Aldermen ("Board") and requesting various officials, departments, boards and agencies of the City to cooperate and to exercise their respective powers in a manner consistent with the Plan; and containing a severability clause.

Resolution No. 169

ORA LEE MALONE

WHEREAS, Mrs. Ora Lee Malone was a long term resident of the 21st Ward, who recently passed on Tuesday, October 30, 2012; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Malone grew up in the south, experienced the relentless discrimination and segregation of the 1930s and 1940s, learned to resist oppression and was involved in boycotts and other activities; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Malone moved to Missouri in 1951, found employment as a textile-worker and led the effort to unionize the predominantly black employees of the California Manufacturing Company. Mrs. Malone was a veteran trade union pioneer, an activist and leader in the U.S. labor movement, a fierce advocate for civil rights and a beacon of light and hope to the disenfranchised and the impoverished; and practice - challenging status quo, pushing for civil rights and women's rights, raising questions of equity and representation for the dispossessed, building organizations to empower the powerless, organizing the unorganized, picketing, negotiating, lobbying and working with others to free victims of oppression; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Malone joined the Amalgamated Clothing and Textile Workers Unions (ACTWU) staff as a business representative, the position from which she retired in January 1989. As the Union first Black business representative, she encountered resistance both from management and from her ACTWU colleagues; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Malone placed special emphasis on the needs of Black people and the needs of women of all races. She was a strong advocate of voter registration and education. She organized the St Louis Branch of the A. Phillip Randolph Institute. She was a founding member of the Coalition of Black Trade Unionists and served as the CBTU Region 8 Representative on the CBTU National Executive Council for 10 years; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Malone was among the independent union women who organized the Coalition of Labor Union Women. The second organizing conference was held in St. Louis and drew 440 women. CLUW was founded in 1974 in Chicago at a conference attended by 3,000 women. Mrs. Malone said "many union men viewed CLUW as an antagonist despite its reasonable demands for day care facilities, female organizers to organize women in all industries and union affirmative action committees, etc"; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Malone was an internationalist whose compassion and concern was evidenced by her years of work on behalf of Africans in Southern Africa. She was a prime resource for films and literature on the liberation struggle that took place against the oppressive Apartheid System. In union conventions, she introduced resolutions calling for support of African workers in South Africa. In 1986 she was instrumental in arranging for 4,600 city and county high school students to view the outstanding film, Last Grave in Dimbaza, at the Fox Theatre; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Malone frequently provided hospitality and accommodation in her home in the 21st Ward for visitors from Southern Africa and she sent tons of clothes, fabric and educational materials to Zimbabwe, Botswana and South Africa.; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Malone played a decisive role in the efforts that led to the passage of bills in the City of St. Louis Board of Aldermen and in the Missouri General Assembly, calling for the divestment of public funds from corporation and banks doing business in Apartheid South Africa; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Malone was the oldest of nine children who often involved her entire family in her many campaigns and struggles.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize to honor the memory of Mrs. Ora Lee Malone and to thank her and her family for their relentless efforts to enrich and improve the quality of life for all Americans, especially African Americans and we direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to her family at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Resolution No. 170

Justin Thomas Seaton

WHEREAS, we have been apprised that recently the rank of Eagle Scout was be awarded to Justin Thomas Seaton; and

WHEREAS, Justin is a member of Boy Scout Troop 212 at Saint Ambrose Catholic School, Thunderbird District, Greater Saint Louis Area Council; and

WHEREAS, Justin is a high school senior at Saint Louis University High School. His Eagle Scout service project was composed of two separate parts, and took about a year to complete. The project was designed to serve a Catholic mission school in the city of St. Louis; and

WHEREAS, the first part of the project consisted of planting and landscaping a large garden in front of Central Catholic School. They dug up the dead, wilting plants and replaced them with brand new bushes and flowers donated through a grant given by the Ladue Garden Club; and

WHEREAS, the second part of the project was to create plans for and build two planters to replace the black metal trash cans that were being used to hold plants at the time; and

WHEREAS, those familiar with

Scouting are aware that the rank of Eagle Scout is a goal sought by many but attained by few; requiring intelligence, perseverance and a strong sense of service to your community.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to congratulate Justin Thomas Seaton on the occasion of his rank of Eagle Scout and we wish him continued success and achievement and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.
